Signature of the Tenderer: ______________________
2.4 Evaluation of Offers
This section details the procedure for examination of the Bid offers and the eligibility and financial parameters for comparison and evaluation of the offers.

2.4.1 Non-Responsive Bids
In the first stage, RSIC shall review the offers to determine whether they satisfy the eligibility criteria as regards technical competence, financial resources to undertake the job, etc. on the basis of Details of eligibility documents required to be given as per Chapter 2. The decision relating to technical competence of the Bidder will rest with RSIC and would not be called into question.
RSIC reserves the right to reject any offer which is non-responsive. No request by/or on behalf of such Bidder for withdrawing or correcting the non-conforming deviation or reservation will be entertained. An offer shall be considered non-responsive for one or more of the following reasons:

a) Received after the date and time specified for “Submission”
b) The offer is not accompanied by Earnest Money Deposit as required under provisions of Clause 2.10
c) The offer is not in accordance with the formats specified in the Tender Documents.
d) Does not contain the required information as specified in this Tender Document.
e) The Bid Documents are not signed and sealed in the manner and to the extent indicated in the Bid documents.
f) The Bid and supporting documents show significant variation and inconsistencies.
g) The Bids are incomplete or conditional.
h) Does not meet the eligibility criteria laid down in Chapter 2 of this Tender Document.

2.4.2 Criteria for Evaluation of Financial Bids
In the second stage, the cover financial Bids of the Bidders who have qualified shall be opened (in the presence of Bidders who wish to be present). The financial offers shall be ranked on the basis of lowest/feasible rates received in the financial bid. The evaluation will be done on the basis of expected traffic multiplied by rates quoted in BoQ.

2.4.3 Right to accept or reject Bids Notwithstanding the foregoing stipulation, RSIC reserves the right to accept or reject any offer, to annul the Bid process and reject all offers, at any time prior to the signing of the Contract, without thereby incurring any liability to the rejected Bidders.

2.4.4 Irrevocability of Bid evaluation result
The evaluation result as substantiated by the Evaluation Committee is irrevocable. The Bidders, when submitting their offers, implicitly agrees to abide by the Committee’s decision and to refrain from any action in recourse. RSIC shall not enter into any discussion whatsoever on the criteria or modalities of the examination and evaluation of the Bid offers and ultimate selection of the successful Bidder.

2.5 Acceptance of Tender
i) The authority for acceptance of the Tender documents will rest with the Competent Authority of the Corporation who does not bind himself to accept the lowest or any other Tender, nor does he undertake to assign reasons for his decision in this matter.
ii) Acceptance of the Tender will be communicated by E.Mail/fax/telegram/letter which would be deemed to conclude the Contract.

iii) The Tender documents in which the Tender is submitted by a Tenderer shall become the property of RSIC and RSIC shall have no obligation to return the same to the Tenderer.

iv) Canvassing in connection with the Tender is strictly prohibited and the Tender submitted by the Tenderer who resorts to canvassing will be liable for rejection.

v) On acceptance of the Tender, the name of accredited representative(s) of the Tenderer, who would be responsible for taking instruction from RSIC, shall be communicated to RSIC within two working days.

2.6 Execution of Contract Document

The Tenderer whose Tender is accepted shall be required to appear at the Corporate Office of RSIC in person or, if the Tenderer is a firm, Company or a Corporation, a duly authorised representative shall so appear and execute the all Contract documents and complete formalities within thirty days of the date of issue of communication from RSIC before starting the work. Failure to do so shall constitute a breach of the Contract concluded by the acceptance of the Tender.

2.7 Period of Contract

i) At the initial stage, the Contract shall be awarded for a minimum period of two years or determination of custodianship of the Corporation, whichever is earlier, from the date of commencement of the work by the Contractor or such other date as may be mutually agreed.

ii) The Contract may be extended for one more year on mutual consent of both the parties. It will be obligatory on the part of the Contractor to continue to work on the same terms and conditions as the initial Contract even beyond the Period of Contract for at least Four (4) months or till a new contract is finalised whichever is earlier.

iii) In the event the Contract is terminated by the Corporation for any reason earlier to the period specified above the Period of Contract shall be deemed to be for the time during which it remains validly in force.

2.8 Volume of Work

i) No definite quantum of work can be guaranteed. The description of the work given in Chapter 3 or in these terms and condition is only illustrative and not exhaustive. It shall not be the cause of any dispute about the nature and extent of the operations. The nature and extent of the work is and shall remain subject to variations and adjustments depending upon the actual requirements. Any variation, addition and/or omission in the items of the work to be actually carried out shall not form the basis of any dispute and shall not give rise to any claim of compensation.

ii) The volume of traffic may fluctuate (increase or decrease) for any reason and the Contractor should note that no claim for compensation arising directly or indirectly out of such fluctuation in the volume of traffic to be handled during the currency of Contract shall be entertained.

iii) No assurance is also given about any item of work at any time during the currency of the Contract. Mere mention of any item of work in this Tender does not by itself confer a right on the Contractor to demand that the work related to all or any item thereof should necessarily or exclusively be entrusted to him. It be clearly understood that no guarantee is given that all the items of the work given in Chapter 3 will be required to be performed by the Contractor.
iv) The Corporation will also have the right to make panel of one or more Contractors for any or all the Services or to divide the work in between such Contractors in any manner that the Corporation may decide and no claim shall be against the Corporation by reason of such division of the work.

2.9 Status of the Contractor’s Authorised Signatory

i) The Contractor shall nominate a person in whose hands the management and control of the work relating to the Contract during the tenure of the Contract would lie. The person so nominated shall be deemed to have power of attorney from the Contractor and the Contractor shall be bound by his/her acts and representations in all respect.

ii) The Contractor shall not, during the currency of the Contract, make without the prior approval of the Corporation, any change in the constitution of the firm as declared by him in the Tender. The Contractor shall notify to the Corporation the death/resignation of the partners/directors immediately on the occurrence of such an event. If the Contractor fails to notify such an event or the Corporation do not approve the change in the constitution of the firm, the Corporation shall have the right to terminate the Contract and get work done by any other company at the cost, risk and responsibility of the contractor.

2.10 Earnest Money Deposit

a. The Tender shall be accompanied by an Earnest Money Deposit of Rs 2,00,000/- (Rupees Two lacs) without which the Tender will not be considered. The amount should be deposited through bank draft/banker's cheque drawn in favour of “The Rajasthan Small Industries Corporation Limited” payable at Jaipur. The bank draft / banker's cheque should be placed in a Cover No. “A”. The Earnest Money is towards the undertaking by the Bidder that the Bidder will not realize from his offer or modify the terms and conditions thereof in a manner not acceptable to RSIC.

b. The Earnest Money in respect of those Bidders who are not taken as qualified on the basis of “Eligibility Criteria” will be returned. The “Financial Bids” will also be rejected without opening. The Earnest Money will be refunded to other unsuccessful Bidders as soon as possible after decision on Tenders and award of Contract to the successful Bidder. For the successful Bidder, the Earnest Money deposited by him will be adjusted against Security Deposit.

c. The Earnest Money will be forfeited in the following cases without prejudice to any further rights or remedies in this regard:

i) When the Bidder withdraws or modifies the offer.

ii) When the Bidder does not execute the agreement within the specified period.

iii) When the Bidder does not deposit the Security Money after the Contract is given.

iv) When bidder fails to commence the work within the stipulated time.

v) When bidder breaches any provisions contract.

d. No interest will be payable on the Earnest Money Deposit in any case.
2.11 Security Deposit

(A) Cash security-

i) The successful Bidder shall furnish a Security Deposit of Rs 10 lacs (Rupees Ten lacs) within 15 days of the acceptance of his Tender, failing which the Earnest Money Deposited mentioned above may be forfeited in full and the Contract shall be liable to be cancelled at his risk and cost subject to such other remedies as may be available to the Corporation under the terms of the Contract. This amount shall be deposited with the Corporation in the form of a bank draft, bankers’ cheque, cash or bank guarantee in specified format (Annexure 1) drawn in favour of “The Rajasthan Small Industries Corporation Limited” payable at Jaipur. The Earnest Money will be adjusted against the Security Deposit.

ii) If the successful Tenderer had previously held any contract and furnished Security Deposit, the same shall not be adjusted against this Contract and a fresh Security Deposit will be required to be furnished.

iii) The amount of Security Deposit may be increased or decreased by the Managing Director at any time during which the Contract remains in force on the grounds of unexpected rise or fall in the business, quality of the Services rendered by the Contractor, inadequacy of the Security already deposited or on any other ground which makes the increase or decrease in amount of Security Deposit necessary.

3.7 Unsatisfactory Performance and Consequences Thereof

3.7.1 The following shall constitute unsatisfactory performance under the Contract:

a) Para 3.6 above define the parameters of acceptable level of Services expected to be rendered by the Contractor and the penalties/fines associated with late compliance of orders and failure of the Contractor to maintain these levels. Any levies on the counts mentioned in required para would tantamount to unsatisfactory performance. Further, depending on operational and commercial requirements, RSIC shall be free to determine, from time to time, the additional levels of satisfactory performance for various activities, which will be required to be carried out as fulfilment of this Contract. The Contractor shall at all times ensure that his performance is satisfactory and is in accordance with the parameters laid down in Clause 3.6 hereinafter, failing which RSIC shall be at liberty to get the affected work done through any other agency, at the risk and cost of the Contractor.

b) Failure of the Contractor to accept any job orders on any day will amount to a serious failure under the Contract for which RSIC can levy penalties up to Rs 10,000/- (Rupees ten thousand) per day. In the event of such failure, the Corporation shall also be entitled to get the job-order done by any other agency at the cost and risk of the Contractor.

c) Delay in carrying out the functions mentioned in Para 3.6 within the time period mentioned therein may attract a penalty of Rs100/- per trailer per working hour or part thereof, subject to a maximum penalty of Rs 500/- per day or part thereof.

3.7.2 In addition to the penal charges payable as stipulated above for such failures as enumerated in para 3.7.1(b)&(c) RSIC will be at liberty to take any other legal action for unsatisfactory working, including but not limited to termination of the Contract.

3.7.3 In the event of unsatisfactory service or any other failure at any time on the part of the Contractor to comply with the terms and provisions of this Contract to the satisfaction of RSIC (who shall be the sole judge and whose decision shall be final), the Contractor shall be liable to be fined up to Rs 5,000/- (Rupees five thousand) on every single occasion on the sole discretion of RSIC. Further more in case of repeated failures/unsatisfactory performance on the part of the Contractor it shall be open for RSIC to terminate this Contract by giving a 7-day notice. In the event of such termination of the Contract, RSIC shall be entitled to (i) forfeit the Security Deposit as it may consider fit, (ii) get the balance work done by making an alternative arrangement as deemed necessary and (iii) recover from the Contractor any extra expenditure incurred by RSIC in getting the work done and damages which RSIC may sustain as a consequence of such action.

3.7.4 The Contractor shall be liable to be fined up to Rs 5,000/- (Rupees five thousand) on each occasion at the sole discretion of RSIC for any lapses, misconduct on the part of his employees, servants or workers in day to day operations and such fines will be recoverable from the bills of the Contractor.

3.7.5 The job order for loading/unloading of containers given by the Manager (ICD) up to 18.30 hr on any day shall have to be complied with by close of the day. In case of failure, the Manager (ICD) may impose fine up to Rs1,000/- (Rupees one thousand) on single case basis and such fines will be recovered from the bills of the Contractor.

3.7.6 In case of a failure by the Contractor to carry out the job orders issued to him RSIC may go in for alternative arrangements at market rates and debit the Contractor in addition to the above penalties.

3.7.7 If the expenditure incurred in accordance with the above Sub-Clauses is more than the Security Deposit, the expenditure over and in excess of the Security Deposit may be recovered by deducting the said amount from money due to the Contractor by RSIC under this or any other contract or otherwise. The Contractor shall have no claim whatsoever against RSIC in consequence of such recoveries or termination of the Contract as stated above.

3.7.8 Notwithstanding anything contained herein above due to reasons beyond control of the Contractor e.g. riots, violence, calamities, fires etc. covered in the preview of “force majeure”, the Managing Director is empowered to consider waiver of above penalties either in part or full at his sole discretion as provided in Chapter 3 and its Sub-Clauses. In this regard, the decision of the competent authority of the Corporation shall be final which will not be arbitral. Due to reasons beyond the control of RSIC e.g. riots, violence, calamities, fires, strikes by employees of RSIC, lock outs, failure of electricity/machinery, non availability or inadequate availability of containers/cargo, RSIC shall have the absolute right to suspend handling on any day or number of days. In such a case, the Contractor shall have no right to claim from RSIC any compensation, damage, loss etc. whatsoever in connection with the suspension of work.

3.7.9 It shall be the duty of the contractor to acquaint himself with all safety regulations regarding handling of all types of containers, handling of all types of cargo and stuffing/destuffing of containers. The contractor shall follow the safety requirements mentioned in this Chapter and as applicable by laws, rules and regulations all the time during the period of contract.

The Contractor shall indemnify the Corporation against any violation of safety laws, rules and regulations while carrying-out operations as required by the contract.

3.8 Insurance

It is advisable for contractor to take a suitable insurance policy for handling of cargo/containers, and also for allied activities/risk, if any. This is in the interest of the contractor to cover himself from risk involved in Handling of cargo/ containers. Since this is a policy which protects the contractor, it is advisable that he takes such a policy for a value as he deems fit. It may be noted that this is not a mandatory requirement of RSIC for fulfillment of this contract. RSIC however, will be recovering the value of any damage that has arisen while the cargo/containers were in the custody of the contractor, from contractor’s bills /security Deposit / BG etc., irrespective of whether insurance policy has been taken by contractor or not.

3.9 Minimum Equipment to be Provided by the Contractor

4. GENERAL CONDITIONS

4.1 Liability of the Contractor for claims on the Corporation

i) In the event of any fault or defaults on any particular day/days on the part of the Contractor in providing adequate equipment, or personnel or to perform any of the Services mentioned herein efficiently and to the entire satisfactions of the Manager (ICD) who in his absolute discretion, without prejudice to other rights and remedies under this Contract, shall have the right to recover by way of penalty from the Contractor @ Rs.1000/- per day per reach stacker/crane; Rs.500/- per day per forklift; @ Rs.200/- per day per tractor trailer; and @ Rs. 200/- per day per default of other kind besides making temporary alternative arrangements to cope up with the work at the risk and cost of the Contractor who will be liable to compensate the Corporation for the consequential damages, if any. The decision of the Manager (ICD) on the question whether the Contractor has committed such a fault or has failed to perform any of the Services efficiently and also liability for payment of compensation and its quantum, shall be final and binding on the Contractor which shall be without prejudice to other rights and remedies available to the Corporation under the Contract.

ii) If the Contractor fails to provide adequate number of equipment, machinery or personnel or workman fails to provide any required service which may hinder the smooth functioning of the ICD or may effect adversely the reputation of the Corporation, the Manager (ICD) shall make temporary alternative arrangements to cope with the work at the cost and risk of the Contractor and shall also levy a penalty which may extend up to Rs. 5,000/- in each case of default depending on the circumstances of the case and the nature of default.

iii) The Contractor shall be responsible for any detention of road vehicle due to insufficiency or failure of handling equipment, insufficiency of persons employed by him or due to neglect carelessness, incompetence or dishonesty of labour or other person employed by him or for any other cause whatsoever and the Contractor shall be liable to pay penal charges @ Rs.100/- per TEU per working hour or part thereof, as defined in clause 3.6, along with a maximum penalty of Rs.500/- per TEU per day or part thereof after five hours free time granted from the time of placement of road vehicle.

iv) The Contractor shall exercise all care and precaution and use proper equipment for handling of various types of containers and consignments to avoid any damage and/or loss to any container and/or cargo at any stage. The Contractor shall be responsible for the safety of the container and cargo while in his custody. In case of any damage to the container and/or cargo the Contractor will be responsible to make good losses as per the survey report finalised in presence of shipping line/shipping agent, Manager (ICD) or his authorised representative and the Contractor’s representative.

v) If a container is damaged during the course of handling by the Contractor, he shall be liable to repair it to the satisfaction of RSIC and the owners of the container. In case RSIC gets the container repaired, the repair charges (in full) will be deducted from his monthly handling bill.

vi) In case of any shortage or damage and/or loss etc to goods for whatsoever reason and cause while the same are in the custody of the Contractor at the time of handling of the same, the Contractor shall be liable to make good to the Corporation the value of the goods including duty, penalties and fines as are leviable by the appropriate authorities for such shortage or damage or loss etc. In addition, if there is any reason for suspicion of collusion of the Contractor or his employee in such losses or damage the Manager (ICD) at his discretion may impose a penalty as deemed fit. The action taken by the Manager (ICD) will be final and binding on the Contractor.

vii) In the event of failure of the Contractor to undertake the work after award of the Contract or resiling from the Contract during its currency, the Corporation shall have the right to get the work done at his risk and cost and the Contractor shall be liable to make good the loss, if any, suffered by the Corporation on this account. The Corporation shall also have the right to deduct the amount of such loss from any sum (including Earnest Money and Security Deposit) then due or which at any time thereafter may become due to the Contractor under this Contract or any other contract with the Corporation and to claim the balance amount from the Contractor.

viii) The Contractor shall indemnify the Corporation against any loss, damage, destruction, or deterioration of cargo and/or containers on account of any delay in handling of containers or any delay in delivery of cargo or due to any negligence or default on his part and/or on the part of his employees or due to failure of equipment or due to non-availability of adequate safety aids with his employees or due to pilferage of cargo by his employees or also due to carelessness, negligence, misconduct of his employees. Any payment made by the Corporation of damage/claims to the shipping lines/shipping agents/users on account against any loss, damage, destruction, or deterioration of cargo and/or containers shall be recovered from the Contractor. The Contractor shall pay on demand without any demur all claims met, and also litigation expenses, if any, incurred by the Corporation immediately. The Corporation shall have the right to deduct the amount of such loss from any sum (including Security Deposit) then due or may become due to the Contractor under this Contract. The decision of the Manager (ICD) shall be final and binding on the Contractor in this regard.

ix) In case of delay in destuffing/stuffing the containers, in addition to the claims towards liquidated damages by the importers/exporters and shipping agents, the storage charges of the cargo/containers which would have accrued/would accrue to the Corporation will be deducted from any sum due to the Contractor.

4.2 Liability for Loss or Damage to Container and/or Cargo

The Contractor shall be liable to compensate RSIC in full for all damages and losses and claims in respect of damage to container and/or cargo, whether in his possession or not, through his negligence, misconduct, default or any other act of commission or omission or that of his agents, servants or employees. The intention of this clause is not to supersede any union land of law.

4.3 Liability for Loss or Damage to the Property of RSIC

i) The Contractor shall be liable to compensate RSIC for all damages and losses and claims in respect of injuries or damage to any person or material or physical damage to property belonging to RSIC, whether in his possession or not, through his negligence, misconduct, default or any other act of commission or omission or that of his agents, servants or employees.
ii) In case of damage to the property of the Corporation during any of the operations, the Contractor is liable for the cost of damage in addition to a penalty @ 10% thereon. The amount of damage will be deposited by the Contractor immediately failing which it would be recovered from his bills. The decision of Managing Director shall be final and binding on the Contractor in this regard.

abide by all the provisions of the Act and the rules, regulations, notifications and orders issued thereunder.

The Customs Cargo Service provider approved for custody of imported or export goods and for handling of such goods shall not lease, gift, sell or sublet or in any other manner transfer any of the premises in a customs area; or sub contract or outsource functions permitted or required to be carried out by him in terms of these regulations to any other person, without the written permission of the Commissioner of Customs.

The Customs Cargo Service provider shall publish and display the schedule of charges for the various services provided by him in relation to the imported goods or export goods in the customs area.

7. Power to relax and regulate: (1) if the Commissioner of Customs is satisfied that in relation to the custody and handling of imported or export goods in a customs area, the Customs Cargo Service provider, for reasons beyond his control, is unable to comply with any of the conditions of regulation 5, he may for reasons to be recorded in writing, exempt such Customs Cargo Service provider from any of the conditions of regulation 5.

(2) The Commissioner of Customs may regulate the entry of goods in a customs area for efficient handling of such goods.

8. Commencement of operations: The Customs Cargo Service provider approved for custody of imported or export goods and for handling of such goods shall not commence any operations in a customs area for the first time unless the Commissioner of Customs is satisfied that all the requirements of the Act have been fulfilled and grants permission to commence the operations by an order in writing.

9. Application for approval of Customs Cargo Service provider:
(1) An application to act as a Customs Cargo Service provider for custody of imported or export goods and for handling of such goods in a customs area shall be made in the form of a letter to the jurisdictional Commissioner of Customs containing details as prescribed in ‘Form A’.

(2) The Commissioner of Customs shall dispose of the application within forty five days of the receipt of the application.

10. Approval of appointment of a Customs Cargo Service provider and review thereof:

(1) Where the Commissioner of Customs is satisfied that the applicant has fulfilled the conditions prescribed in regulation 5, he may approve such an applicant as a Customs Cargo Service provider, for a period of two years from the date of issue of such approval.

Provided that a Customs Cargo Service provider already approved on or before the date of coming into force of these regulations, shall be deemed to be approved as a Customs Cargo Service provider under these regulations for a period of five years from the date of compliance with the conditions of these regulations as stipulated in regulation 4.

(2) The Commissioner of Customs shall review the approval granted under sub regulation (1) before the expiry of the initial period of approval of two years or five years, as the case may be, and may extend such approval to a further period of five years at a time. Provided that the Commissioner of Customs, for reasons to be recorded in writing, may order for review of the approval granted to any Customs Cargo Service provider before the completion of the period of approval.

11. Suspension or revocation of approval for appointment of a Customs Cargo Service provider:

(1) The Commissioner of Customs may, subject to the provisions of these regulations, suspend or revoke the approval granted to the Customs Cargo Service provider subject to the observance of procedure prescribed under regulation 12 and also order for forfeiture of security, if any, for failure to comply with any of the provisions of the Act and the rules, regulations, notifications and orders made thereunder;

(2) Notwithstanding anything contained in sub-regulation (1), the Commissioner of Customs may, in appropriate cases where immediate action is necessary, suspend the approval granted to a Customs Cargo Service provider where an enquiry against such Customs Cargo Service provider is pending or contemplated.

12. Procedure for suspension or revocation of approval and imposition of penalty:-

(1) The Commissioner of Customs shall issue a notice in writing to the Customs Cargo Service provider stating the grounds on which it is proposed to suspend or revoke the approval and requiring the said Customs Cargo Service provider to submit within such time as may be specified in the notice not being less than thirty days, to the Assistant Commissioner or Deputy Commissioner of Customs nominated by him, a written statement of defence and also to specify in the said statement whether the Customs Cargo Service provider desires to be heard in person by the said Assistant Commissioner or Deputy Commissioner of Customs.

(2) On receipt of the written statement from the Customs Cargo Service provider, or where no such statement has been received within the time-limit specified in the notice referred to in sub-regulation (1), the Assistant Commissioner or Deputy Commissioner of Customs...
Customs may inquire into such of the grounds as are not admitted by the Customs Cargo Service provider.

(3) The Assistant Commissioner or Deputy Commissioner of Customs shall, in the course of inquiry, consider such documentary evidence and take such oral evidence as may be relevant or material to the inquiry in regard to the grounds forming the basis of the proceedings and he may also put any question to any person tendering evidence, for or against the Customs Cargo Service provider, for the purpose of ascertaining the correct position.

(4) The Customs Cargo Service provider shall be entitled to cross-examine the persons examined in support of the grounds forming the basis of the proceedings and where the Assistant Commissioner of Customs or Deputy Commissioner of Customs declines to examine any person on the grounds that his evidence is not relevant or material, he shall record his reasons in writing for so doing.

(5) At the conclusion of the aforesaid inquiry, the Assistant Commissioner of Customs or Deputy Commissioner of Customs shall prepare a report of the inquiry recording his findings.

(6) The Commissioner of Customs shall furnish to the Customs Cargo Service provider a copy of the report of the Assistant Commissioner or Deputy Commissioner of Customs and shall require the Customs Cargo Service provider to submit within the specified period not being less than thirty days any representation that he may wish to make against the findings of the Assistant Commissioner of Customs or Deputy Commissioner of Customs.

(7) The Commissioner shall, after considering the report of the inquiry, and the representation thereon, if any, made by the Customs Cargo Service provider, pass such orders as he deems fit.

(8) If any Customs Cargo Service provider contravenes any of the provisions of these regulations, or abets such contravention or who fails to comply with any provision of the regulation with which it was his duty to comply, then, he shall be liable to a penalty which may extend to fifty thousand rupees.

(9) Any Customs Cargo Service provider aggrieved by any decision or order passed under this regulation, may appeal under section 129A of the Act to the Customs Central Excise and Service Tax Appellate Tribunal established under sub-section 1 of section 129 of the Act.

13. Renewal of approval for appointment of Customs Cargo Service provider. The Commissioner of Customs may on application made by the Customs Cargo Service provider before the expiry of the validity of the appointment under regulation 10, renew the approval for a further period of five years from the date of expiration of the original approval granted under regulation 10 or of the last renewal of such approval, as the case may be, if the performance of the approved Customs Cargo Service provider is found to be satisfactory with reference to his obligations under any of the provisions of the Act and the rules, regulations, notifications and orders made thereunder.

EXPLANATORY MEMORANDUM

Handling of Cargo in Customs Area Regulations, 2009 provide for a comprehensive mechanism for handling of goods in a customs area and set out the terms and conditions for all facilities where customs cargo is handled. It also provides for the conditions and responsibilities of the persons handling import or export cargo in Inland Container Depot (ICD) or Container Freight Station (CFS) or seaport or airport or Land Customs Stations (LCS) and provide adequate control over the cargo handling entities to ensure that the adequate infrastructure is set up at such facilities for efficient handling of import or export goods. This also fulfills the recommendation made by the Public Accounts Committee (2005-2006) for the Government to formulate appropriate provisions in this regard.
