2.4 Evaluation of Offers

This section details the procedure for examination of the Bid offers and the eligibility and financial parameters for comparison and evaluation of the offers.

2.4.1 Non-Responsive Bids

In the first stage, RSIC shall review the offers to determine whether they satisfy the eligibility criteria as regards technical competence, financial resources to undertake the job, etc. on the basis of Details of eligibility documents required to be given as per Chapter 2. The decision relating to technical competence of the Bidder will rest with RSIC and would not be called into question.

RSIC reserves the right to reject any offer which is non-responsive. No request by/or on behalf of such Bidder for withdrawing or correcting the non-conforming deviation or reservation will be entertained. An offer shall be considered non-responsive for one or more of the following reasons:

- a) Received after the date and time specified for "Submission"
- b) The offer is not accompanied by Earnest Money Deposit as required under provisions of Clause 2.10
- c) The offer is not in accordance with the formats specified in the Tender Documents.
- d) Does not contain the required information as specified in this Tender Document.
- e) The Bid Documents are not signed and sealed in the manner and to the extent indicated in the Bid documents.
- f) The Bid and supporting documents show significant variation and inconsistencies.

Signature of the Tenderer: _____

- g) The Bids are incomplete or conditional.
- h) Does not meet the eligibility criteria laid down in Chapter 2 of this Tender Document.

2.4.2 Criteria for Evaluation of Financial Bids

In the second stage financial Bids of the Bidders shall be considered. The financial offers shall be ranked on the basis of maximum revenue generation for RSIC as per financial bid i.e. minimum % offered by the tenderer in the financial bid, which is % age desired by the contractor out of the total revenue generated from short lead transportation activities.

The tender floated is on revenue sharing model

2.4.3 Right to accept or reject Bids Notwithstanding the foregoing stipulation, RSIC reserves the right to accept or reject any offer, to annul the Bid process and reject all offers, at any time prior to the signing of the Contract, without thereby incurring any liability to the rejected Bidders.

2.4.4 Irrevocability of Bid evaluation result

The evaluation result as substantiated by the Evaluation Committee is irrevocable. The Bidders, when submitting their offers, implicitly agrees to abide by the Committee's decision and to refrain from any action in recourse. RSIC shall not enter into any discussion whatsoever on the criteria or modalities of the examination and evaluation of the Bid offers and ultimate selection of the successful Bidder.

2.5 Acceptance of Tender

- i) The authority for acceptance of the Tender documents will not rest with the Competent Authority of the Corporation who does not bind himself to accept the lowest or any other Tender, nor does he undertake to assign reasons for his decision in this matter.
- ii) Acceptance of the Tender will be communicated by E.Mail/fax/telegram/letter which would be deemed to conclude the Contract.
- iii) The Tender documents in which the Tender is submitted by a Tenderer shall become the property of RSIC and RSIC shall have no obligation to return the same to the Tenderer.
- iv) Canvassing in connection with the Tender is strictly prohibited and the Tender submitted by the Tenderer who resorts to canvassing will be liable for rejection.
- v) On acceptance of the Tender, the name of accredited representative(s) of the Tenderer, who would be responsible for taking instruction from RSIC, shall be communicated to RSIC.

2.6 Execution of Contract Document

The Tenderer whose Tender is accepted shall be required to appear at the Corporate Office of RSIC in person or, if the Tenderer is a firm, Company or a Corporation, a duly authorised representative shall so appear and execute the all Contract documents and complete formalities within thirty days of the date of issue of communication from RSIC before starting the work. Failure to do so shall constitute a breach of the Contract concluded by the acceptance of the Tender.

Signature of the Tenderer: _____

2.7 Period of Contract

- i) At the initial stage, the Contract shall be awarded for a minimum period of two years or determination of custodianship of the Corporation, whichever is earlier, from the date of commencement of the work by the Contractor or such other date as may be mutually agreed upon.
- ii) The Contract may be extended for one more year on mutual consent of both the parties. It will be obligatory on the part of the Contractor to continue to work on the same terms and conditions as the initial Contract even beyond the Period of Contract for at least three months or till a new contract is finalised whichever is earlier.
- iii) In the event the Contract is terminated by the Corporation for any reason earlier to the period specified above the Period of Contract shall be deemed to be for the time during which it remains validly in force.

2.8 Volume of Work

- i) No definite quantum of work can be guaranteed. The description of the work given in Chapter 3 or in these terms and condition is only illustrative and not exhaustive. It shall not be the cause of any dispute about the nature and extent of the operations. The nature and extent of the work is and shall remain subject to variations and adjustments depending upon the actual requirements. Any variation, addition and/or omission in the items of the work to be actually carried out shall not form the basis of any dispute and shall not give rise to any claim of compensation.
- ii) The volume of traffic may fluctuate (increase or decrease) for any reason and the Contractor should note that no claim for compensation arising directly or indirectly out of such fluctuation in the volume of traffic to be transported during the currency of Contract shall be entertained.
- iii) No assurance is also given about any item of work at any time during the currency of the Contract. Mere mention of any item of work in this Tender does not by itself confer a right on the Contractor to demand that the work related to all or any item thereof should necessarily or exclusively be entrusted to him. It be clearly understood that no guarantee is given that all the items of the work given in Chapter 3 will be required to be performed by the Contractor.
- iv) The Corporation will also have the right to make panel of one or more Contractors for any or all the Services or to divide the work in between such Contractors in any manner that the Corporation may decide and no claim shall be against the Corporation by reason of such division of the work.

2.9 Status of the Contractor's Authorised Signatory

- i) The Contractor shall nominate a person in whose hands the management and control of the work relating to the Contract during the tenure of the Contract would lie. The person so nominated shall be deemed to have power of attorney from the Contractor and the Contractor shall be bound by his/her acts and representations in all respect.
- ii) The Contractor shall not, during the currency of the Contract, make without the prior approval of the Corporation, any change in the constitution of the firm as declared by him in the Tender. The Contractor shall notify to the Corporation the death/resignation of the partners/directors immediately on the occurrence of such an event. If the Contractor fails to notify such an event or the Corporation do not approve the change in the constitution of the firm, the Corporation shall have the right to terminate the Contract and get work done by any other company at the cost, risk and responsibility of the contract.

Signature of the Tenderer: _____

2.10 Earnest Money Deposit

- a. The Tender shall be accompanied by an Earnest Money Deposit of Rs 1,00,000/- (Rupees one lacs) without which the Tender will not be considered. The amount should be deposited through bank draft/banker's cheque drawn in favour of "The Rajasthan Small Industries Corporation Limited" payable at Jaipur. The bank draft / banker's cheque should be placed in a Cover No. "A". The Earnest Money is towards the undertaking by the Bidder that the Bidder will not rescind from his offer or modify the terms and conditions thereof in a manner not acceptable to RSIC.
- b. The Earnest Money in respect of those Bidders who are not taken as qualified on the basis of "Eligibility Criteria" will be returned. The "Financial Bids" will also be rejected without opening. The Earnest Money will be refunded to other unsuccessful Bidders as soon as possible after decision on Tenders and award of Contract to the successful Bidder. For the successful Bidder, the Earnest Money deposited by him will be adjusted against Security Deposit.
- c. The Earnest Money will be forfeited in the following cases without prejudice to any further rights or remedies in this regard:
 - i) When the Bidder withdraws or modifies the offer.
 - ii) When the Bidder does not execute the agreement within the specified period.
 - iii) When the Bidder does not deposit the Security Money after the Contract is given.
 - iv) When bidder fails to commence contract within specified time.
 - v) When bidder breaches any provision of contract clauses.
- d) No interest will be payable on the Earnest Money Deposit in any case.

2.11 Security Deposit:

- i) The successful Bidder shall furnish a Security Deposit of Rs 300000/- (Rupees three lacs) before commencement of contract, failing which the Earnest Money Deposited mentioned above will be forfeited in full and the Contract shall be liable to be cancelled at his risk and cost subject to such other remedies as may be available to the Corporation under the terms of the Contract. This amount shall be deposited with the Corporation in the form of a bank draft, drawn in favour of "The Rajasthan Small Industries Corporation Limited" payable at Jaipur. The Earnest Money will be adjusted against the Security Deposit.
- ii) If the successful Tenderer had previously held any contract and furnished Security Deposit, the same shall not be adjusted against this Contract and a fresh Security Deposit will be required to be furnished.
- iii) The amount of Security Deposit may be increased or decreased by the Managing Director at any time during which the Contract remains in force on the grounds of unexpected rise or fall in the business, quality of the Services rendered by the Contractor, inadequacy of the Security already deposited or on any other ground which makes the increase or decrease in amount of Security Deposit necessary.

Signature of the Tenderer: _____

- iv) Any amount of dues of the Corporation standing against the Contractor shall be deducted from the Security Deposit, or from any other amount payable to the Contractor, including other contracts. In the event of the Security Deposit being found insufficient or if the Security Deposit has been wholly forfeited, the balance of the sum recoverable, as the case may be, shall be deducted from any sum then due or which at any time thereafter may become due to the Contractor under this or any other contract with the Corporation. Should that sum, also be not sufficient to cover the full amount recoverable, the Contractor shall pay to the Corporation on demand the remaining balance due.
- v) Whenever the Security Deposit falls short of the specific amount, the Contractor shall make good the deficit so that the total amount of the Security Deposit shall not at any time be less than the specified amount.
- vi) The Security Deposit may be forfeited if the Contractor leaves the Contract before the expiry of the Period of Contract or if he puts the Corporation to a financial or other loss by his conduct or otherwise or if he breaches any of the terms and conditions of the Contract or for any other reason by which he renders himself persona non grata for the Corporation.
- vii) The Security Deposit shall be refunded to the Contractor six months after the successful completion of the Contract and issuance of a "No Dues Certificate" by the Manager (ICD). 3.3 DETENTION OF TRAILERS AT ICD

No detention charges shall be payable to the TO if trailers pertaining to the fleet of local transportation are idling for want of demand for factory stuffing/de-stuffing, breakdown of handling equipment, or for any other reasons.

3.4 MONITORING OF TRAILER MOVEMENT & KEEPING RSIC/SHIPPERS/IMPORTERS INFORMED.

The TO shall develop systems to keep a track of all the trailers moving between ICD & RAIL HEAD & Factories. Daily reports indicating all the relevant details in the format prescribed by CONCOR in a manner specified by Terminal Manager/Depot In charge - shall be sent.

3.5 Unsatisfactory Performance and Consequences Thereof

3.5.1 The following shall constitute unsatisfactory performance under the Contract:

- a) above define the parameters of acceptable level of Services expected to be rendered by the Contractor. Any levies on the counts mentioned in required paras would tantamount to unsatisfactory performance. Further, depending on operational and commercial requirements, RSIC shall be free to determine, from time to time, the additional levels of satisfactory performance for various activities, which will be required to be carried out as fulfilment of this Contract. The Contractor shall at all times ensure that his performance is satisfactory and is in accordance with the parameters laid down, failing which RSIC shall be at liberty to get the affected work done through any other agency, at the risk and cost of the Contractor.
- b) Failure of the Contractor to accept any job orders on any day will amount to a serious failure under the Contract for which RSIC may levy penalties up to Rs 5,000/- (Rupees Five Thousand) per day. In the event of such failure, the Corporation shall also be entitled to get the job-order done by any other agency at the cost and risk of the Contractor.

3.5.2 In the event of unsatisfactory service or any other failure at any time on the part of the Contractor to comply with the terms and provisions of this Contract to the satisfaction of RSIC (who shall be the sole judge and whose decision shall be final), the Contractor may be liable to be fined up to Rs 5,000/- (Rupees Five Thousand) on every single occasion on the sole discretion of RSIC. Further more in case of repeated failures/unsatisfactory performance on the part of the Contractor it shall be open for RSIC to terminate this Contract by giving a 7-day notice. In the event of such termination of the Contract, RSIC shall be entitled to (i) forfeit the Security Deposit as it may consider fit, (ii) get the balance work done by making an alternative arrangement as deemed necessary and (iii) recover from the Contractor any extra expenditure incurred by RSIC in getting the work done and damages which RSIC may sustain as a consequence of such action.

3.5.3 The Contractor may be liable to be fined up to Rs 5,000/- (Rupees five thousand) on each occasion at the sole discretion of RSIC for any lapses, misconduct on the part of his employees, servants or workers in day to day operations and such fines will be recoverable from the bills of the Contractor.

3.5.4 In case of a failure by the Contractor to carry out the job orders issued to him RSIC may go in for alternative arrangements at market rates and debit the Contractor in addition to the above penalties.

Signature of the Tenderer: _____

3.5.5 If the expenditure incurred in accordance with the above Sub-Clauses is more than the Security Deposit, the expenditure over and in excess of the Security Deposit may be recovered by deducting the said amount from money due to the Contractor by RSIC under this or any other contract or otherwise. The Contractor shall have no claim whatsoever against RSIC in consequence of such recoveries or termination of the Contract as stated above.

3.5.6 Notwithstanding anything contained herein above due to reasons beyond control of the Contractor e.g. riots, violence, calamities, fires etc. covered in the preview of "force majeure", the Managing Director is empowered to consider waiver of above penalties either in part or full at his sole discretion as provided in Sub-Clauses. In this regard, the decision of the competent authority of the Corporation shall be final which will not be arbitral.

3.6 Conditions for Transportation of Containers

3.6.1 The Contractor shall exercise all care and precaution while transporting containers to avoid any damage or loss to the containers or cargo at any stage irrespective of the mode of transportation or handling. The Contractor shall be responsible for safety of the containers and cargo while in his custody failing which RSIC shall be at liberty to invoke the security deposit by the Contractor. The Contractor shall not receive and transport any container whose original seals have been tampered with or whose contents appear to have been damaged/pilfered and will always act only on instructions of the Manager (ICD) in such cases.

3.6.2 When being transported by road, containers are subjected to forces and vibrations arising from braking, cornering, accelerations, road surface and wind. In order to prevent any movement of the container relative to the carrying vehicle, which might lead to injury to personnel or damage, the containers shall be supported and secured during transport as under:

The container shall be supported on the road vehicles on all four bottom corner fittings or by the intermediate load transfer areas in the base structure.

- i) The position of the securing devices shall be readily apparent;
- ii) The correct positioning of all securing devices shall be checked before placing containers onto or removing them from carrying vehicles;
- iii) Any intermediate securing devices shall be retracted or removed; and
- iv) Before the vehicle is moved and during transport the securing of the container shall be checked.

3.6.3 The Contractor shall ensure immediate replacement of a vehicle on its being involved in an accident, mishap, detention and/or impounding by concerned authorities, becoming out of order or road unworthy, etc for transportation of containers. In such eventualities, the Contractor shall inform the Manager (ICD) in writing without any loss of time. In case he fails to promptly substitute it by another vehicle in good working and presentable condition and in case alternative arrangements are made by RSIC for the transportation of containers, it will be at Contractor's risk and cost till a suitable replacement is provided him. The decision of RSIC as to the extent of expenditure incurred and/or loss sustained by RSIC in this regard shall be final and binding on the Contractor. RSIC shall have the right to recover such expenditure and loss as sustained by it and RSIC shall recover the same from the Contractor. In this regard the decision of authorised officer of the Corporation shall be final.

Signature of the Tenderer: _____

- 3.6.4 In case of Contractor's vehicle getting damaged whether by way of accident or due to any other reason whatsoever, it shall be his responsibility to get the same repaired at his cost and expenses, and RSIC shall not be liable either for the expenditure incurred by him on the repairs and/or on replacement of spare parts of such vehicles or in any other manner whatsoever.
- 3.6.5 In case of an accident in transit or for any other reason, if a container needs to be transhipped on to another vehicle/chassis en route, the transshipment shall be carried out by the Contractor at his cost and risk. The Contractor shall also be liable to pay the compensation/claim in respect of short deliveries, if any, occurring due to such mishaps.
- 3.6.6 The Contractor shall have to pay, at his cost all types of taxes as per the Indian Motor Vehicles Act, statutory provisions, octroi duty or any other levies imposed by Central Government or different State Governments, local bodies etc. from time to time. The octroi duty payable on value of goods (wherever applicable as per law of the land) will be paid by him (Contractor) and will recover from consignor/consignee, as the case may be, directly.
- 3.6.7 The tractor-trailers should have necessary permits to move the containers across the interstate borders taking into account various traffic and other restrictions imposed by the concerned State Governments. This, however, is only on indicative and not an exhaustive list of all the steps which the Contractor shall be required to take in order to fulfil his Contractual obligations safely, efficiently and expeditiously.
- 3.6.8 Notwithstanding anything contained hereinabove, due to reasons beyond the control of RSIC e.g. riots, violence, calamities, fires, strikes by employees of RSIC, lock outs, failure of electricity/machinery, non availability or inadequate availability of containers/cargo, RSIC shall have the absolute right to suspend handling/transportation on any day or number of days. In such a case, the Contractor shall have no right to claim from RSIC any compensation, damage, loss etc. whatsoever in connection with the suspension of work.
- 3.6.9 Before commencement of work the Contractor shall notify the Corporation about the condition of vehicles.
Any claim arising out of the contract on account of the vehicles or employees deployed by the contractor will be to the account of the contractor and the contractor shall indemnify Corporation against any such claims.

The Contractor shall indemnify the Corporation against any violation of safety laws, rules and regulations while carrying-out operations as required by the contract.

3.6.12 Transit Insurance

It is advisable for contractor to take a suitable insurance policy for transportation and handling of containers, and also for allied activities/risk, if any. This is in the interest of the contractor to cover himself from risk involved in transportation of containers, Since this is a policy which protects the contractor, it is advisable that he takes such a policy for a value as he deems fit. It may be noted that this is not a mandatory requirement of RSIC for fulfilment of this contract. RSIC however, will be recovering the value of any damage that has arisen while the containers were in the custody of the contractor, from contractor's bills /security Deposit / BG etc., irrespective of whether insurance policy has been taken by contractor or not.

3.7 Minimum Vehicles to be Provided by the Contractor

3.7. For Transportation

- a) The Contractor shall deploy minimum 5 to 10 road vehicles for transporting loaded and empty containers; these are non encumbered vehicles and not required inside ICD, when there is no work
- b) If at any time, it shall appear to the Manager (ICD) that the number of vehicles deployed/present is insufficient for the work to be performed, the Manager (ICD) reserves the right to ask the Contractor to increase the number of vehicles required at 12 hours notice. It will be the responsibility of the Contractor to fulfil all job orders issued within the required time period.

3.7.3 The minimum number of vehicles required for proper performance of the work at any time shall be determined by the Manager (ICD) and his decision in this regard shall not be called into question by the Contractor.

Additional Conditions of Contract

1. Correction of arithmetic errors.-

Provided that Financial Bid is substantially responsive, the Procuring Entity will correct arithmetical errors during evaluation of Financial Bids on the following basis, namely: -

- (a) if there is a discrepancy between the unit price and the total price that is obtained by multiplying the unit price and quantity, the unit price shall prevail and the total price shall be corrected, unless in the opinion of the Procuring Entity there is an obvious misplacement of the decimal point in the unit price, in which case the total price as quoted shall govern and the unit price shall be corrected;
- (b) if there is an error in a total corresponding to the addition or subtraction of subtotals, the subtotals shall prevail and the total shall be corrected; and
- (c) if there is a discrepancy between words and figures, the amount in words shall prevail, unless the amount expressed in words is related to an arithmetic error, in which case the amount in figures shall prevail subject to (a) and (b) above.

If the Bidder that submitted the lowest evaluated Bid does not accept the correction of errors, its Bid shall be disqualified and its Bid Security shall be forfeited or its Bid Securing Declaration shall be executed.

2. Procuring Entity's Right to vary Quantities.-

- (a) At the time of award of contract, the quantity of Goods, works or service originally specified in the Bidding Document may be increased or decreased by a specified percentage, but such increase or decrease shall not exceed twenty percent, of the quantity specified in the Bidding Document. It shall be without any change in the unit prices or other terms and conditions of the Bid and the conditions of contract.
- (b) If the procuring Entity does not procure any subject matter of procurement or procures less than the quantity specified in the Bidding Document due to change in circumstances, the Bidder shall not be entitled for any claim or compensation except otherwise provided in the Conditions of Contract.
- (c) In case of procurement of Goods or services, additional quantity may be procured by placing a repeat order on the rates and conditions of the original order. However, the additional quantity shall not more than 25% of the value of Goods of the original contract and shall be within one month from the date of expiry of last supply. If the suppliers fails to do so, the Procuring Entity shall be free to arrange for the balance supply by limited bidding or otherwise and the extra cost incurred shall be recovered from the Supplier.

Signature of the Tenderer: _____

3. Dividing quantities among more than one bidder at the time of award.-

As a general rule all the quantities of the subject matter of procurement shall be procured from the bidder, whose Bid is accepted. However, when it is considered that the quantity of the subject matter of procurement to be procured is very large and it may not be in the capacity of the Bidder, whose Bid is accepted, to deliver the entire quantity or when it is considered that the subject matter of procurement to be procured is of critical and vital nature, then in such cases, the quantity may be divided between the Bidders, whose Bid is accepted and the second lowest Bidder or even more bidders in that order, in a fair, transparent and equitable manner at the rates of the Bidder, whose Bid is accepted.
